

Risk Disclosures

At CoinMENA FZE, we are committed to providing a secure and transparent platform for your crypto-asset endeavors. As part of our commitment to transparency and client education, we want to ensure that you are well informed about the potential risks associated with crypto-asset services.

Before you explore our services, we encourage you to review our comprehensive list of risk disclosures. These disclosures outline the material risks you should be aware of when engaging in crypto-asset transactions. Understanding these risks is crucial to making informed decisions and navigating the dynamic landscape of digital assets.

1. Crypto-asset is not a legal tender and is not backed by the government of UAE;
2. The value, transfer, exchange, or use of crypto-assets may be affected by Regulatory and/or legislative changes at both a national and international level;
3. Any transaction in crypto-assets may be irreversible and, accordingly, losses due to fraudulent or accidental transactions may not be recoverable;
4. Some crypto-asset transactions may be deemed to be made when recorded on a public ledger, which is not necessarily the date or time that you initiate the transaction;
5. May not be liquid
6. Some transactions are not private and may be recorded on public DLTs.
7. The value of crypto-assets may be derived from the continued willingness of market participants to exchange fiat currency for crypto-asset, which could result in a total loss of value of a particular crypto-asset should the market for it disappear;
8. Significant losses may be incurred over a short period due to the volatility and unpredictability of the price of crypto-assets relative to fiat currency;
9. The nature of crypto-assets may lead to an increased risk of fraud or cyber-attacks;
10. The nature of crypto-assets means that any technological difficulties experienced by the licensee may prevent the access or use of your crypto-assets; and
11. Client's Virtual Assets and Fiat Assets are not accorded any deposit protection mechanism from CoinMENA.